Bill Fowler's BATTLE OF THE FEET

Who will step into the circle and join "Battle of the Feet" at this year's IDO World Tap Dance Championships in Prague? A cherished part of the Championships since 2011, envisioned by Bill Fowler and Michael Wendt, this is a must-see!

Who Can Enter:

The battle is open to all tap dancers aged 15 and over as long as they are officially participating in the championship or are a choreographer or coach of participating dancers. Judges and officials are not eligible to compete.

Format:

Dancers will perform in male and female categories, tapping 16 bars each in succession, without musical accompaniment. A judge will provide the beat, setting the stage for a showcase of pure tap talent.

Registration:

Entries are limited to one male and one female dancer per country. To enroll, please contact your team captain after final schedule of the World Championship is published and no later than October 15th.

Judging:

Judges will decide after whether additional rounds are necessary. The field will narrow down to four dancers (two from each category) for the finals.

Don't miss your chance to step into the circle!
